HOTEL DES INDES, A LUXURY COLLECTION HOTEL

History

In 1858 the hotel was initially built as the town residence of Baron van Brienen, the personal advisor of King William III. In 1881, 4 years after his death, the manor was sold and transformed into an elegant and extremely luxurious hotel. In 2004 the hotel started with major renovations. After the reopening in September 2005, the ultra chic Hotel Des Indes, a Luxury Collection Hotel features 92 rooms designed by Jacques Garcia (the famous designer who also refurbished Hotel Costes in Paris).

All guest rooms up to Presidential Suites, offer rewarding experiences and unrivalled convenience in a historical environment.

Location

The hotel is situated at a prime location in the centre of The Hague on a leafy square in the heart of the governmental and diplomatic district. Antique shops, inspirational restaurants, prominent museums and theatres are within walking distance. The hotel is just a few minutes away from the rhythm of the lively city centre and easy to reach by both car and public transportation.

DesIndes Restaurant•Lounge•Bar

Remco Biesma has been inspired by the Paris-based culinary phenomenon Rostang, which has resulted in a French-International style kitchen. Restaurant, Lounge, Bar... they all make up a large space divided in different areas that each has their own unique atmosphere. The areas have been unified by the special touch of Garcia who re-invented and re-shaped the look and feel of this great place in a unique way. Des/nDes is open all year.
