Experience the grandeur of The Hague at Hotel Des Indes

Originally built in 1858 as a private residence to host aristocrats and heads of state, Hotel Des Indes, a member of Leading Hotels of the World, continues a tradition of opulence in the Royal Capital of The Netherlands. Situated on the leafy Lange Voorhout, The Hague's most distinguished district, and is surrounded by masterpiece-filled museums, antique shops and boutiques.

Hotel Des Indes features 92 rooms, including 13 suites, each celebrating the rich Dutch heritage. All successfully blend contemporary amenities and luxurious atmosphere.

Splendour lingers in the air, but sophisticated technology brings contemporary style to our 6 meeting rooms, providing the ideal combination of past and present. Our dedicated staff are here to anticipate your needs, and make sure every detail is handled with flawless professionalism.
