BALLROOM

In former days, the Ballroom was the main room of the hotel. Baron van Brienen hosted his festivities and events in this salon. The original details have been preserved and are still visible in the room. As largest salon of Hotel des Indes, the Ballroom is very versatile and provides the perfect backdrop for any event ranging from wedding receptions to formal meetings. A magnificent salon to impress your guests.

VAN BRIENEN

In former days, the Salon van Brien en was the private residence of Baron van Brien en. With old paintings, the magnificent overlook on the Lange Voorhout and a lot of natural daylight, this salon demonstrates that historical characteristics combines perfectly with today's meeting and technology requirements. Therefore, the salon is completely in style to receive your guests for a family dinner or our famous High Tea.

PAUL KRUGER

The salon is named after Paul Kruger, president of 'Transvaal' and leader of the Peasant Uprising in 1900. He arrived at Hotel Des Indes on December 7th 1900 and stayed for one month. He used the balcony of the salon to address the locals. The Salon Paul Kruger has a lot of daylight and a beautiful view on the Lange Voorhout due to the floor to ceiling windows. As the salon can only be accessed through the Ballroom or Salon van Brienens, it is only available to book in combination with one of the adjacent salons.

ROTONDE

The Rotunda is an unique location within the heart of the hotel. The venue is named Rotunda, as it is the location where you used to see the carriages circle in and out of the building. They would stop at the bottom of the staircase, which leads to the Ballroom where Baron van Brienens hosted his festivities and events. The characteristic dome brings light, together with 300 light bulbs. With its exceptional shape, the Rotunda is an unique location for your drink, reception or event.

ANNA PAVLOVA CHAMPAGNE LOUNGE

The Anna Pavlova Champagne Lounge was originally the permanent hotel room of the world famous ballerina Anna Pavlova who passed away on the 23rd of January in 1931 from pneumonia at Hotel Des Indes. After her death the space served various purposes including a library and a cigar lounge. From this period the distinctive cigar cabinet remains preserved to this day.

In addition to its role as a Champagne Lounge this elegant salon is ideally suited for business and social events as well as intimate dinners all within a setting rich in history and atmosphere.

JACQUES GARCIA

The salon is named after the French architect who was in charge of the interior of Hotel Des Indes during the renovations in 2006. The stained glass with the Coat of Arms of Amsterdam, Rotterdam and The Hague were a gift from the two cities as a sign of solidarity. The historic details, plenty of daylight and the comfortable royal chairs make this salon ideal for a lunch, dinner, meeting or creative session
